

Susan M. Ulrich

PARTNER

Susan Ulrich is a Partner Waters Kraus Paul & Siegel in the firm's Los Angeles office. She focuses her practice on aggressively litigating on behalf of survivors of sexual abuse and those who have been catastrophically injured by toxic substances and dangerous products. Susan represents victims of childhood sexual abuse in schools, churches and other settings. She also helps people with mesothelioma caused by asbestos exposure, families dealing with birth defects resulting from chemical exposures in the semiconductor and commercial agriculture industries, as well as patients who have been harmed by faulty surgical implants and medical equipment. Throughout her career, Susan has been driven by a commitment to serve others. Prior to law school, Susan worked with high risk populations in the non-profit sector focusing on issues of poverty and youth violence. A native of Massachusetts, Susan earned a bachelor's degree in politics and American studies from Brandeis University. She was awarded her Juris Doctor degree from Northeastern University School of Law. Susan is a member of the American Association for Justice, Massachusetts Bar Association, and the State Bar of California. Susan is licensed to practice law by the State Bars of California, Massachusetts, and Washington.
